THE MAROON & GOLD

PUBLISHED BY

THE SENIOR CLASS
AUBURN HIGH SCHOOL
AUBURN, PENNSYLVANIA

VOLUME 9 - 1956

FOREWORD

The staff has selected as the theme for this 1956 edition of the MAROON AND GOLD — "Life in America in 1976."

We realize that the world is in a troubled and uncertain state; nevertheless, we have an optimistic faith in our country's future. We believe that through education we, the young America, can create a glorious and peaceful tomorrow.

Possessing this ideal, we have tried to sketch a humorous and yet realistic portrait of our country and ourselves twenty years from now. On the following pages is recorded the events of the past year in Auburn High, against the background of our advanced view of America in 1976.

AUBURN HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

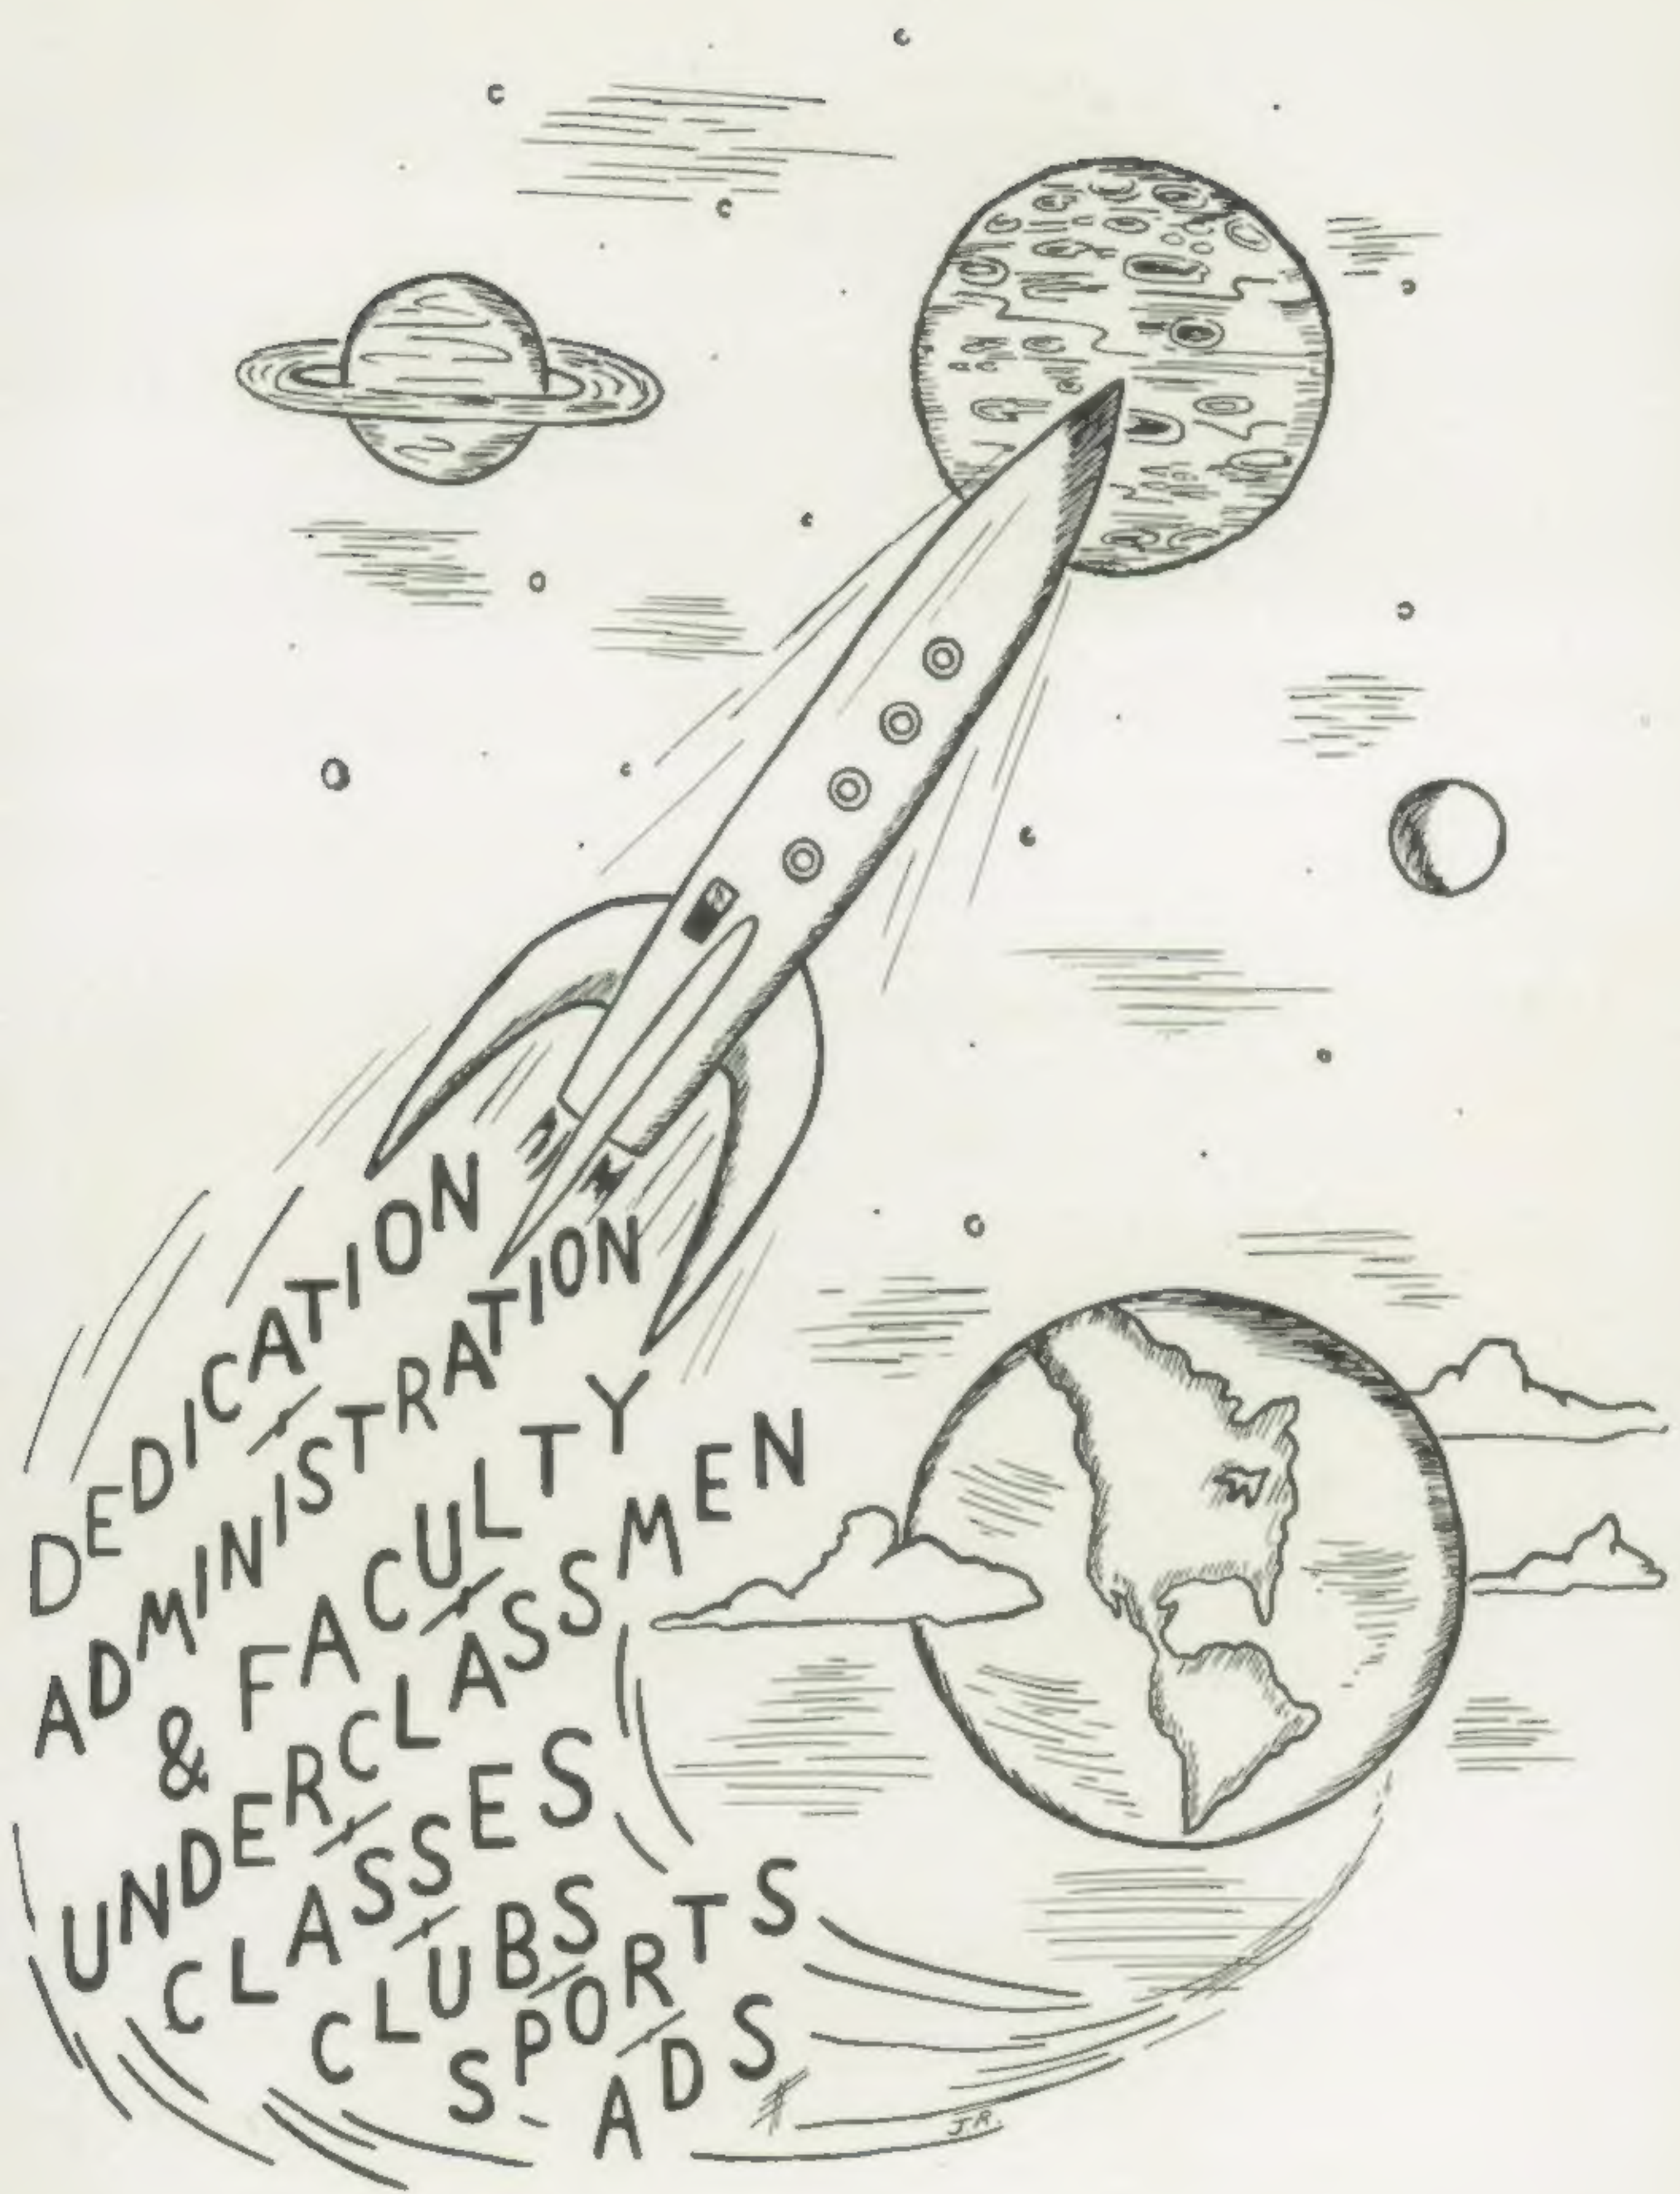

Auburn High School, ever love thee
Through the March of Time;
Standing on a forest hillside,
High above the town.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Praise to thee we sing;
May thy sons and daughters ever Hail to thee our queen.

"— STANDING ON A FOREST HILLSIDE —"

Honor, love, to God and country,
For all truth and right;
Thou hast ever taught unfailing,
Even as the night;
As we scatter o'er the tumult,
You will always be
Standing on a forest hillside,
Auburn High, to me.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is reassuring to note that your theme for this yearbook — TWENTY YEARS IN THE FUTURE — is forward looking in its outlook. It implies a feeling of optimism and faith. This, coupled with your motto — THERE ARE NO BENCHES ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS — leads me to believe that you will realize the responsibilities and duties that are yours and are looking forward with intelligent understanding to the real world of the future of which you are and will be a part.

The note of optimism is like a refreshing breeze in this troubled world of uncertainty and strife. If all of the graduating seniors of this country of ours approached the future with the same point of view, we could all take comfort in the knowledge that our country is in safe hands.

Accept my sincere compliments on your many past and present achievements and my very best wishes for your next and next and next twenty years.

FREDERICK K. KRAUSS.

CLASS RING

The Class of 1956 selected a ten-karat gold ring with the numbers of the graduation year on each side of the setting. The members of the class also chose to have their initials on each side of the setting.

The crest emblem is located in the center of the ring with the letter "A" designating the name of our school. Beneath the "A" high school is embossed in full. The gold setting contains a stone of either onyx, blue sapphire, pearl, a combination of ruby and pearl, or a combination of blue sapphire and pearl.

Our class ring will be a constant reminder of our happy years at Auburn High.

CLASS SONG

Tune: "Moments to Remember"

The time has come for us to part,
We shed a tear though in our heart
We will have our school days to remember.

The night we gave our Senior Play
We were so frightened and afraid,
We will have these moments to remember.

Our parents and our teachers dear,
They helped with all their might:
We've tried our best to do what's right and graduate tonight.

When days have gone and years have passed,
And we have gone our separate ways,
We will have our school days to remember.

—CAROL ANN BINNER

CLASS POEM

Our days at A. H. S. are drawing nigh,
And we, the Class of '56, must say good-bye.
For twelve years we have studied and learned,
And now our diplomas we have earned.

Although we'll go our separate ways,
We'll all remember our school days;
And all the fun that we had here,
We all will cherish most sincere.

Now as we leave our Alma Mater so true,
Here is one thought we'll pass on to you—
"There Are No Benches On The Road To Success."
Remembering this we'll do our best.

—JANICE HUMMEL.

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September 1952 twenty-two proud pupils entered the Freshman Class at Auburn High School. We elected the following officers to take charge of our class responsibilities:

President.....	Carol Binner	Treasurer.....	Virginia Brommer
Vice-President.....	Janice Hummel	Historian.....	Emily Auman
Secretary.....	Paul Herman	Class Reporter.....	Dorothy Schrader

During this year we took three interesting class trips. At Pottsville we visited the Court House, the city jail, and the Republican newspaper office. On the Philadelphia trip we toured many places of historical interest. In May we took a guided tour through our state capitol and the Hershey chocolate factory. Members of our class participated in such activities as Chorus, Orchestra, Pioneer, and Girls and Boys Basketball. Our class adviser was Mr. John Koppenaver.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Once more we returned to complete our second high school year. We began our sophomore year with nineteen members after losing Smiley Knoll, Francis Chatcho, and Georgetta Minnich. At our first class meeting we elected the following class officers:

President.....	Janice Hummel	Treasurer.....	George Reedy
Vice-President.....	John Reedy	Historian.....	Carol Binner
Secretary.....	Dorothy Schrader	Class Reporter.....	Paul Herman

This year we selected our class colors, motto, and flower, which are respectively green and gold, talisman rose, and "There Are No Benchmarks On The Road To Success." Three of our class officers resigned, and new ones were elected. They were: Historian — Emily Auman, Treasurer — Carol Binner, and Reporter — Virginia Brommer. This year we had two record dances and sold Christmas wreaths, jewelry, and corsages. The class also had a Christmas party. In March we proudly selected our class rings. Members of our class were active in the following extra-curriculars: Orchestra, Chorus, Pioneer, and Girls and Boys Basketball. Before this term ended, our class lost three more members. They were Judith Reber, Paul Herman, and Richard Depler. Our class adviser this year was Mrs. Doris Hummel.

JUNIOR YEAR

Once more we returned to Auburn High this year with a class of sixteen. We lost Mildred Schrader during the summer. On the first day of school everyone was excited by the arrival of our long-awaited class rings. We decided to keep the same class officers as we had in our sophomore year:

President.....	Janice Hummel	Treasurer.....	Carol Binner
Vice-President.....	John Reedy	Historian.....	Emily Auman
Secretary.....	Dorothy Schrader	Reporter.....	Virginia Brommer

Our money-making activities consisted of a record dance, a hoe-down, selling A. H. S. pins, sweatshirts, and jewelry. We also participated in a magazine campaign with the seniors, which we proudly won. A Christmas party was included in our activities. Members of our class took part in the following activities: Chorus, Orchestra, F. H. A., Pioneer, and Girls and Boys Basketball. Our adviser was Mrs. Doris Hummel.

SENIOR YEAR

As proud seniors we triumphantly returned for our last year at Auburn High School. Our class had now decreased to fifteen members. We lost Donald Reed and gained Fenne Strausser. Again we decided to retain the same class officers:

President.....	Janice Hummel	Treasurer.....	Carol Binner
Vice-President.....	John Reedy	Historian.....	Emily Auman
Secretary.....	Dorothy Schrader	Reporter.....	Virginia Brommer

Mrs. Hummel was once again our adviser. Our money-making activities consisted of a record dance, a magazine campaign, selling high school jackets and hats, and Christmas cards. On December 2 we proudly presented our Senior Play entitled "Young, Willing, and Able." The play was a great success due to the excellent direction and help of Miss Grace E. Fitts. The next important activity was our yearbook, the MAROON AND GOLD. The following were elected to the staff: Editor in chief, Janice Hummel; Assistant Editor, Dorothy Schrader; Business Manager, Carol Ann Binner; Assistant Business Manager, Virginia Brommer; Sports Editor, Dennis Lengel; Assistant Sports Editor, Doris Lengel. The remainder of the class was on the literary staff. We were kept busy going for ads and working on the yearbook. Members of the class participated in such activities as Chorus, Orchestra, Pioneer, F. H. A., and Girls and Boys Basketball. May 19 was the occasion of our exciting and memorable Senior Ball. Our senior year was climaxed by our long-awaited trip to Washington on May 21, 22, and 23. The memories of this trip will remain with us forever. Now, as we leave to face the future, we wish to bid our fond farewell to our teachers and friends who have made our days at A. H. S. pleasant and enjoyable. We shall never forget the pleasant memories we shared together at our Alma Mater.

"THE SPACE BALL"

It is a cool spring evening in the year 1976. Tonight is a big evening in Auburn because the Class of 1956 is having a reunion. Alumni will come from far away to attend this gala "Space Ball."

The music for the dance will be provided by the Kenton Orchestra under the direction of the famous musician, Ellen Reber.

Everyone is having a grand time especially our four Marines — George Reedy, Wayne Moyer, Dennis Lengel, and Fred Kamp. They have recently returned from an important mission investigating reports of a shortage of toothpaste on the planet Jupiter. The mission was top-secret, so they weren't at liberty to discuss their findings.

Chatting as in old times were Emily Auman and Lois Mickshaw. Emily is now supervising the medical care of the province of Venus. Lois is, of course, a well known fashion expert and the wife of millionaire Taylor Brant Cawdor, 3rd.

Nearby, I noticed Virginia Brommer explaining a new discovery of the Brommer X Ray Laboratory, of which she is the head, to Lewis Bover. Lewis is the creator of that fabulously funny comic strip, "Mixed up Mitzi," that keeps all Mars in stitches every morning. I tried to discover whether Lonal X-10 returns to Mitzi, but Lewis only grinned and said, "Wait until 1979 to find out." Lewis always was witty and mischievous.

Then I saw the famous beauty expert and our former president, Janice Hummel. She looked lovely in that new hair style which she created. She calls it the "Martian Monster." The whole universe is crazy about it, and it's no wonder — it's simply gorgeous. Janice said she was going to add eleven salons to her beauty shoppe chain to take care of the extra business.

The famous educational expert of the Interplanetary Council, Ferne Strausser, was discussing the merits of a proposed school in space. Ferne has pioneered many new developments in the educational field and hopes to gain approval of the idea. She feels that air might be more conducive to learning in space by clearing the students' minds of cobwebs.

Talking with Ferne was Doris Lengel, the designer of the new "Z" silhouette in women's clothing. Doris owns her own exclusive shop in New York City, Earth. Unfortunately, I couldn't see the any advanced information on the fashion outlook for fall.

Entering late were Dorothy Schrader, the criminal lawyer, and her confidential secretary, Carol Berner. They explained that they were detained by an important case. Dorothy and Carol have just completed the "Case of the Missing Space Suit," or "What Happened to Uncle Harry's Trousers," in which they captured and convicted the master criminal, Space-happy Sylvester.

As the ball was nearing its end, I noticed that distinguished gentleman, John Reedy. I immediately thanked John for his miraculous discovery of serum M X Q, which prevents old age, grows hair, polishes teeth, and removes freckles.

After bidding good bye to the members of the Class of '56, I sped away in my Comet Special with fond memories of my illustrious friends at the Space Ball.

SYNOPSIS

The story opens when J. Beethoven Beasley, the owner, is about to go into bankruptcy because of his old-fashioned business ways. Beasley's son, Jimmy, returns from prep school and he along with Dottie Stone asks Mr. Beasley to give the younger generation a chance. Mr. Beasley agrees, provided that they can persuade Ophelia Pringle to extend the note she holds against the company. Jimmy and Dottie succeed in doing this; and then with the aid of some friends, they start their campaign to put the company back on its feet. They organize the Beasley Boogie Woogie Band. Their advertising proves that Beasley instruments have fewer sour notes in them than any other make. Just when things are beginning to look brighter Ophelia Pringle calls in the note for personal reasons and the teenagers are headed for disaster. In a succession of richly comic scenes this disaster is averted, and youth marches on to victory.

SENIOR SYMPHONIES

EMILY, who is the historian of the class.
Is always a willing and helpful lass.

CAROL, with her dark brown hair,
Never has to worry what she'll wear.

LOUIE, a lad whom we all like,
Can be seen in his Chevy every night.

GINNY, who really likes to have fun,
Is always glad when her homework's done.

JENNY, with her cute little smile,
Everything she does is really worthwhile.

FRED, who hails from out of town,
Can usually be seen roaming around.

DENNY'S a card, we all must say,
Clowning around in Dad's Henry J.

DORIS is a very giggly girl,
In sewing she can create a whirl.

LOIS, who really likes the boys,
Pestering people is what she enjoys.

WAYNE, who always likes to hunt,
In physics class puts on a stunt.

ELLEN, who is very gay,
In orchestra the piano she does play.

GEORGE, who really isn't quiet at all,
Is usually seen playing basketball.

JOHN, a very artistic lad,
Is always helpful and never bad.

DOROTHY, an ambitious gal,
Plans to enter Southern "Cal."

FERNE, who will someday teach school,
Will always follow the Golden Rule.

WE, THE "56" GRADUATES of Auburn High,
Bid our teachers and friends good-bye.

The boys showed good teamwork and displayed fine sportsmanship this season. Even though they were sometimes losing by a big score, they always tried to play their best. Due to graduation the team will lose George Reedy, Dennis Lengel, Wayne Moyer, and Lewis Boyer, a manager.

Some of my very best friends go in my last business for your future.

Remember all the fun
we had in the morning comparing notes and playing volleyball with the boys. The time we had the movie on glass and we were making around with the boys to be not we passed in history class. The assemblies we were in together. The time we went to Pettville and Henshaw + Phila for me, and I really did this school up right. I was wearing the boys used to put our ponytails and the time they took us in the closet. How dreadful!
I hope you'll remember me, if I go to Heaven. I miss red long telephone calls. Big pretzels and popovers we spent at noon. The nicknames we gave each other. Shelly for you, Caddy for Sue, and Cindy for me. Boy this is getting long. The times we spent spelling + history when we used to call

one person and the other,
I think now miss me.
I hope you and John who super it might be make out all right.

Love,
Sandy

P.S.
I really think you're sorry, very kind, considerate, and sweet. I could have never finished my visit in time for our trip if you hadn't helped me. The times that I forgot my assignments and you helped me. Believe me I really appreciate it. You can really crack the jokes and can really laugh at my unsilly jokes. Thank you so much! xxx

Have loads of fun
~~lots~~ loads of love,
Sandra

Sylvia,
To one of my very best friends and one of the nicest and cutest girls in 8th grade I wish the best of luck and best wishes for your future.

I'll never forget how kind you were to me even tho I was always forget something.
Remember all the fun we had in assembly and the fun we had when we went to Hershey. (I got sick on the cuddle-up). Rember the fun we had playing soccer and volleyball. You're a pretty good player yourself.
Remember how we shared our or rather your thermos bottle on the trip to Philadelphia.
Remember how we got a ride in the canoe and you sat in the middle and my dad and I paddled. Remember the time we got in a snowball fight with the boys and I had to leave you "defenseless" all alone.
I still remember how we split popsicles at noontime. I bet I owe you a million popsicles.
Remember the trip to Safe Harbor and Philadelphia. Remember Choir practices and "G. S.?" and also the trips into the wood and to the dam last year. Remember the parties at school especially decorating them.

Also remember how we have you Sandy, and I helped each other with our assignments. Altogether you've been a wonderful friend.

Lots of Love,

future.

Do not forget the good time we had at Hershey Park. When Sandra, you, and I went on the high chute. Also the bumping cars. It was a lot of fun.
I hope we have as much fun whenever we go to Phila.

I will never forget how kind you were to me.

Take good care of yourself also John.
